Flexible Cutting Mats Custom Pantone Imprint

These popular patented mats are in virtually every household due to their convenience and functionality in food preparation .. slicing, dicing, funneling. Chances are you have one in your home! These are proven performers and are now available to promote your business and promote brand awareness that is cost effective.

Why Chop Chop®

Consumer awareness and confidence in brand – 17 years of proven quality! Your message and logo are always “in-use” at home during entertaining and special events.

Durability – Chop Chop® mats are patented using virgin FDA approved food grade plastic and soy based printing inks that provide years of satisfactory service. Our one piece construction provides a hard surface that protects your counter and won't dull knives. DISHWASHER SAFE

Flexibility– Although we feature several stock sizes we can produce any shape you desire to ensure maximum advertising impact.
